Payroll Solutions you can Trust

Heatons/Brandmax, part of Sports Direct International uses Intelligo's payroll software, MegaPay, to manage the payroll for over 2,000 employees.

Background

Heatons was an Irish department store established in 1946. In 2016 it became a part of the Sports Direct Group and the stores were re-branded to Sports Direct and Brandmax.

They offer the best ranges you could buy, including new designer labels, often with reductions in price of up to 70% off the recommended retail price. They have since become one of Ireland's largest groups of department stores with 42 sites in the Republic of Ireland as well as 18 stores and a distribution centre in Northern Ireland.

Now employing 2,000 staff, Heatons/ Brandmax, part of Sports Direct International use MegaPay to manage their large payroll requirements.

Choosing Intelligo

According to Inga Valatkiene, Payroll Manager, they were driven to seek an alternative solution due to the inadequate support received from their previous provider.

Inga said, "The decision to choose MegaPay was mostly based on how flexible and user friendly the system is compared with others.

The transition to MegaPay was stress free and very organised. All staff in our payroll department received excellent training and continued support until we were 100% happy and confident with all the Payroll functions."

Benefits

Heatons/Brandmax, part of Sports Direct International have felt the benefits of using MegaPay when it comes to processing their payroll:

Practical in terms of processing data and reporting.

- Simple to import master files, timesheet data and mass changes.
- Report Writer is very easy and practical to use.
- Tailorable to suit our payroll needs.

Working with Intelligo

A client of Intelligo since 2013, Inga added "I can't compliment enough their support team! All staff are extremely helpful and professional. All the queries are answered or problems solved, in a professional and timely manner.

Intelligo have the best MegaPay customer service and support, and are highly efficient in providing software updates." Inga rates MegaPay's outstanding security, reliability and value as the highest features when using the software and the reasons they remain a happy Intelligo customer.

She noted "I feel very confident and trust Intelligo's expertise in any task." Intelligo look forward to working with Heatons/Brandmax, part of Sports Direct International for a long time to come.

“With over 2,000 employees across 4 different payrolls, MegaPay makes running the Payroll easy, as the functionality within the software is very easy to use, such as timesheet imports, mass uploads, etc.”
