CASE STUDY

Allergan is a speciality manufacturer of health care products, mainly to do with the eyes.

Allergan chose Intelligo's managed payroll service, Intellipay, to manage the payrolls for 1,200 employees in Ireland.

"The payroll expertise of Intellipay is a key benefit, as is the efficient and reliable service. Our payroll was previously in house but we're confident it's in good hands now."

Alan Flannery, Finance Director, Allergan.

Background

Allergan is a multi-specialty health care company focused on discovering, developing and commercialising innovative products for the eye care, neuromodulator, skin care and other speciality markets, that enable people to live life to its greatest potential — to see more clearly, move more freely, and express themselves more fully.

Now in over 100 countries worldwide, Allergan markets products that deliver value to its customers, satisfy unmet medical needs and improve patients' lives. Allergan now uses Intellipay to manage the payroll for over 1,200 Irish employees.

The Outsourcing Process

When asked about the experience of moving to an outsourced provider Alan Flannery, Finance Director of Allergan, said:

"The outsourcing process went very well, we had a detailed implementation plan with a team who had done this many times, the challenges were our own systems of data collection and the extract reports that we use."

"The timing of the project was also an issue at the time, as it was close to Christmas and Bonus period. We had too many things happening but it was very successful and we were happy with the overall process from Intellipay".

Benefits of Intellipay

Allergan also noted a number of benefits of using Intellipay to manage their payrolls, these include:

Control summary reports tailored to meet their SOX needs.

An efficient and reliable service for Payroll Expertise.

Excellent reporting and control packages.

There are no hidden charges, you pay a set fee each month. We also own our payroll software, Megapay, so can tailor our service to suit your requirements.
